

S.O.S. Grants:

All Hands On-Deck for Staff Operating Support

Nonprofit crews need funding that will keep wind in their sails as they navigate a sea full of existential crises. Traditional grant types (even general operating support) are inadequate for today's treacherous waters.

We invite you to explore the concept of Staff Operating Support (S.O.S.) Grants. S.O.S. Grants are a new kind of funding vehicle that will not only be a life-saver for nonprofits, but will power them to reach their program goals in a sustainable fashion. And S.O.S. Grants work within the budgets of grantmakers and grantees alike.

Dive into the new S.O.S Grants illustrated concept paper from Fund the People today:

